Point. His father raised a second son Jonathan 6 Apr. 1761.

Hannah moved with her son-in-law, Moses Hackett,
(also her first cousin) to New Gloucester, Province of Maine, and later to Bakerstown (now Minot).

"Her son-in-law, Moses Hackett, always had a great account of respect for her, and well he might, for his wife, a beauty, when she was young, and very fair when she was old, was always too dainty to work and her mother was the mainstay of the family and household for nearly thirty years, or until her granddaughter Hannah was old enough to take her place. Her grandson, William Lockett told her in such high esteem that his family, not one of whom ever saw her, always spoke affectionately of "Grandmother Morrill."

In letters written from Crown Point in 1760 by Jonathan Merrill to his wife Hannah, he mentioned "your brother, Ezekiel." Also Richard Hackett of Salisbury, Mass., wrote letter to his sister, Hannah Merrill, of Hinct and his cousin, Moses Hackett, and mentioned "Ezekiel and his family." He also mentioned the settlement of Benjamin's, their brother, estate.

Ezekiel died (2) after 1801 and before (probably) 1804.

He married (3) at South Hampton, N. H. (originally Salisbury, Mass.) on 5 Nov. 1761, Hannah Davis, dau. of Abel and Mary (Millet) Davis, born (4) at Gloucester, Mass. on 16 July, 1743.

In the New Gloucester Centennial pamphlet, pp. 127, a list of the roll of Capt. Isaac Parsons Company mustered into service in May, 1780 for 3 mos. service at Ticonderoga, No., under Gen. Vassverth, Col. Prince's Regt., had as one of its members Ezekiel Hackett. This must have been Ezekiel, sr., as at that time Ezekiel, Jr., was a prisoner of war at Fort Mifflin, Oct. 1781 to 16 June, 1702. He had enlisted Feb., 1730, under Capt. Clement.

In 1801 Ezekiel, Sr., sold $\frac{1}{2}$ lot #24 to Richard Backett who in turn sold same lot in 1804 to Anderson. This was in Lisbon, Me. The three transfers of lot #24 were all recorded by Richard in 1804.

FOURTH GENERATION

ROCKE HACKETT ⁴ (Henry ³, William ², William ¹) son of Henry and Mary (Clough) Hackett was born in Salisbury, Mass., 3 July, 1735 (1), died (2) in Pinot, Maine, 19 March, 1837, Mar. (3) 1 June 1786, at Amherst, Mass., Mrs. Sarah (Merrill) Bartlett, dau. of Jonathan and Hannah (Zachett) Merrill of Wallingbury, Conn. She was born (4) 5 Nov. 1787; died (5) at Vinot, Maine, 22 April, 1835.

Moses stated in a letter which is in possession of Miss Evelyn Perkins of Vinot that he was not quite fifteen years old when his father died, that he remained in New Gloucester until April 28, 1788, when he moved his family to Hodge Hill in Bakerstown (Vinot) where he remained until his death in 1837.

Moses was a farmer, in religion a Methodist, and his home was a favorite winter resort for Methodist ministers.

They tell a story of this man that speaks well for him. He was a worker, and in his prime was called the best farmer in the town of Vinot. One year when corn was very scarce he had more than he needed and some of his affluent neighbors offered to buy it of him at an advance of the usual price but he would not sell to them. He said, "You have money to buy and teams to send to Portland, but there are many poor men in town who have neither and will suffer if I sell to you." He sold his corn to poor men, took only $1.00 a bushel, the regular price when corn was plentiful, gave them two quarts extra, the miller's toll, for each bushel and took his pay in work.

Luckan T. Hackett, his grandson, lived with him a part of the time and heard him say that he served a short time in the Revolutionary War doing garrison duty near Boston, but not long enough to be entitled to a pension.

On Sept. 12, 1726 Isaac Parsons, Esq., Colonel and Commander of the Fourth Regiment of Militia in the County of Cumberland, authorized Moses Hackett of New Gloucester as sergeant in the company commanded by Captain Nathaniel Eveleth.
